(1) Before riding a bus

Ohow to look up a route

When you decide your destination, let's search it on the websites.

<Nankai Bus>

On the timetable search site, (「時刻表検索」) you can see timetables by clicking bus stop names on the route map. On the fare and route search site(「運賃・経路検索」), you can check routes from the route map (In Japanese only). Nankai Bus Homepage: http://nankaibus.ekispert.net/dia/bustime/web/index.cgi?page=rosenzu (timetables) http://nankaibus.ekispert.net/dia/route/web/exp.cgi (routes)

<Kintetsu Bus>

On the Route Search page, you can enter the bus stop you will get on and off at. You can also set the date and time. Kintetsu Bus Homepage: https://www.kintetsu-bus.co.jp/route/ (Japanese) https://kintetsu-bus.jorudan.biz/en/route (English)

OBus Location System (English & Japanese)

This is a system where you can check a bus's movement in real time to see when it will arrive or if it is late.

<Nankai Bus>

Enter the bus stops where you will depart from and arrive at, and click search to see the bus's movement (picture 1). https://loc.bus-vision.jp/nankai/view/searchStop.html (Japanese)

OSakai City Bus Route Map(Japanese only)

A map showing the bus routes in Sakai City「堺市バス路線マップ」is available on the Sakai City website. (https://www.city.sakai.lg.jp/shisei/toshi/kokyokotsu/bus_riyo/busmap180401.html)

It is also available at the Administrative Information Center, Administrative Information Corners at every ward office (except Sakai Ward) and at tourist information centers.

(2) Waiting for the bus

OBus stops

Bus stops have a signpost with the bus stop name and timetable. Please wait here (Photo 1) until the bus comes.

OTimetables

The operational schedule varies on weekdays, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays (Table 1), so please be careful and make sure to check the day you ride on a bus. Also, please make sure to check the destination and route No., because two or more destinations may be on a timetable.
